

how to login to

www.StockAnalysis.com.au

step one: open up the StockAnalysis home page www.stockanalysis.com.au

step two: click on the "members login" button in the top left hand corner tip: soon we will be sending you a card in the post with your username and password details - keep it safe!

step three: a box will appear asking for your username and password, enter your allocated details for example:
username = lastname
password = lastname123
all passwords are in lower-case with no spaces

tip: if it appears, check the "remember my password" box so you dont have to type in your details every time (only when you are on your own computer)

step four: click on PDF to download a PDF version of the latest edition.

You may also browse the recent archived editions by scrolling down & clicking on the links. To view older issues click on FY 05/06, FY 04/05 or FY 03/04

tip: you can read the editions on screen or print out the PDF to read a hardcopy
